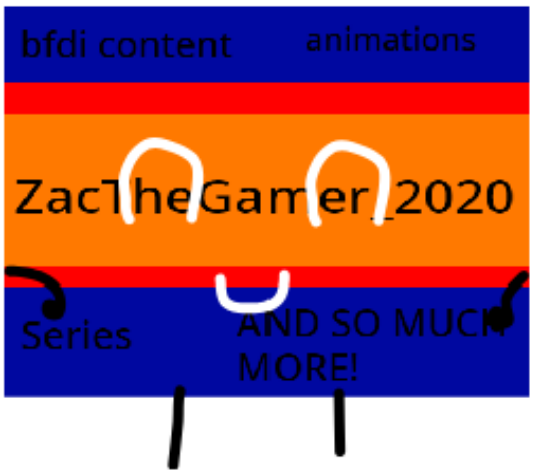
“Milky Magic began as a Scratch series.”

For bfdifan50, a reminder that my book is based on my canon. I might not get everything right about your info, or major events.



Chapter 1
Unshrunk

It was a bright summer day in Objectsville. The year 2018 had come around, and more than half of it was already finished. Inside a strange building filled with question marks, Milky, the newest member of the Unknown Gang, was present.

Milky was 21 years old. His appearance was that of a red milk carton, with markings saying, “Milk: Your dads will search for it”. He had joined quite recently and was asked by the leader of the gang, most commonly called Boss, to change his appearance. Boss wore a disguise similar to a black square with a red question mark on it. He ordered the other members to spray paint the gang logo on Milky.

Milky was a bit disappointed and commented that he wanted to be with his friends. The leader of the group told him that his statement was against gang policy and that he would shrink him as a method of punishment. Milky now stood at the size of an action figure. Later that day, Boss regretted shrinking him, so he transformed Milky back to his former size.

Back home, Milky’s dad was a bit worried. “Where did you go? I was a bit worried about you,” said the father, wanting to know what his son had done. Milky, trying to cover up, lied and said he was playing with his friends after school. Even though he was a university student, his dad believed it.

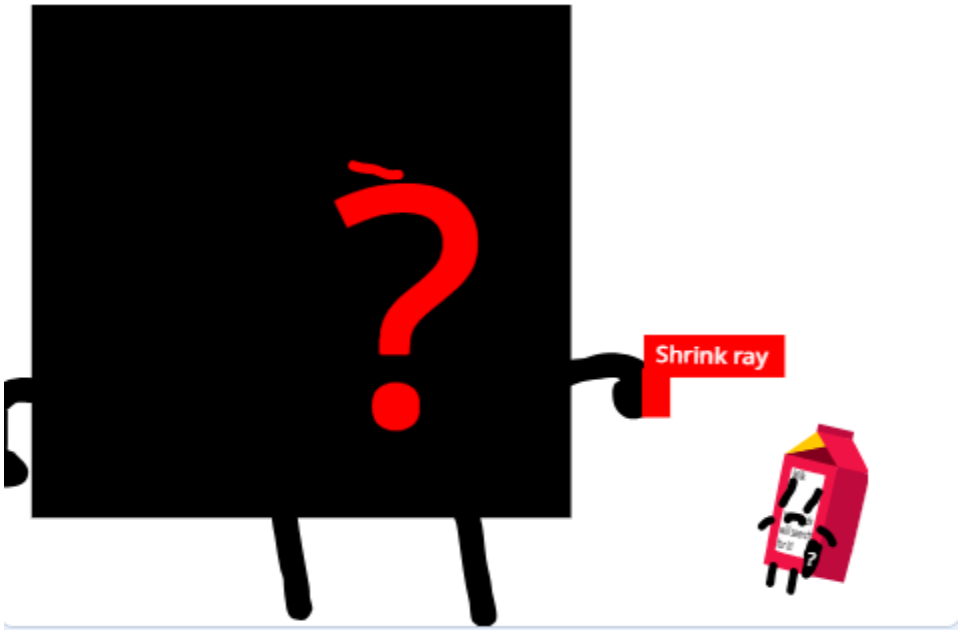
In the evening, they both sat at the dinner table. Milky's dad talked to his son about gangs. He was scared that he might be in one and that they could put him in jail or give him the death penalty.

The next day, a gang meeting took place. The Unknown Gang was in danger. The Known Gang, their main enemy, had just gained more territory than they had. Angry about their leader blatantly spreading misinformation, one of the members tried to prove him wrong, but it caused a fight.

Milky, sick of the terrible conditions, used the fight as an opportunity to escape from the gang building.



Chapter 2
A new city

When Milky finally made it home safely, he asked his dad about moving out to Blupool. His father said yes and proudly wished him good luck.

The 21-year-old drove along the main road of the new city and saw a sign that read, “Blupool: Home of the God Himself.” He ignored it. There was no way such a niche city could house a powerful being like that.

The milk carton bought a house situated next to a church. A sign outside read, “Prophecy of Face in Darkness,” with the same symbol he had seen on the town sign. Curious, he went inside and was greeted by Chocolate Chip, a living cookie.

Chocolate Chip was one of the most powerful figures in the prophecy. He was the one who had spread the words of Face in Darkness throughout the entire town. The cookie invited Milky to work on the prophecy.

Suddenly, he yelled at Toast, an armless slice of toast. Toast was very kind, so kind that he would not even hurt a fly. The bread’s boss announced that Milky would be his only other coworker. He also shared the news with Face in Darkness.

Face in Darkness was a God who possessed all the powers of the universe. Hearing this, he felt proud that someone else was learning about the truth of the universe.

Toast then realized that Milky was the person who had taken care of his younger brother Rolly years ago. Rolly was a smart baby who had been neglected by his parents, so Milky adopted him.

Toast told the milk carton his name. Milky found it strange. Where was the y in his name?

Chapter 3
Don't trust them

Milky and Toast slowly started becoming friends. But one day, Toast decided to tell Milky the truth.

"Face in Darkness is omnipotent, but he isn't a god. He proclaims that he is one, but he isn't at all," said the bread, his voice filled with honesty and courage.

Right after that confession, Face in Darkness burst into the room with his hypnotized servants. Some of them are members of the Unknown Gang. The two boys were captured instantly.

The powerful being turned to Milky. Why would he listen to that traitor, spreading "lies" about the prophecy? The entire Unknown Gang was hypnotized!

Face in Darkness commanded his mind-controlled minions to shrink Milky. Just as they were about to pull the trigger on the shrink ray, the leader of the gang appeared.

"HEY! Leave my members alone, you filthy, darkness-covered brat!" Boss shouted angrily.

Face in Darkness was amused by Boss's "bravery." With a mere glance, he hypnotized him too.

Then Milky was shrunk, for real this time. He was the same tiny size he had been when the very person who tried to save him had shrunk him before.

Toast stared in shock at his new friend, now so small.

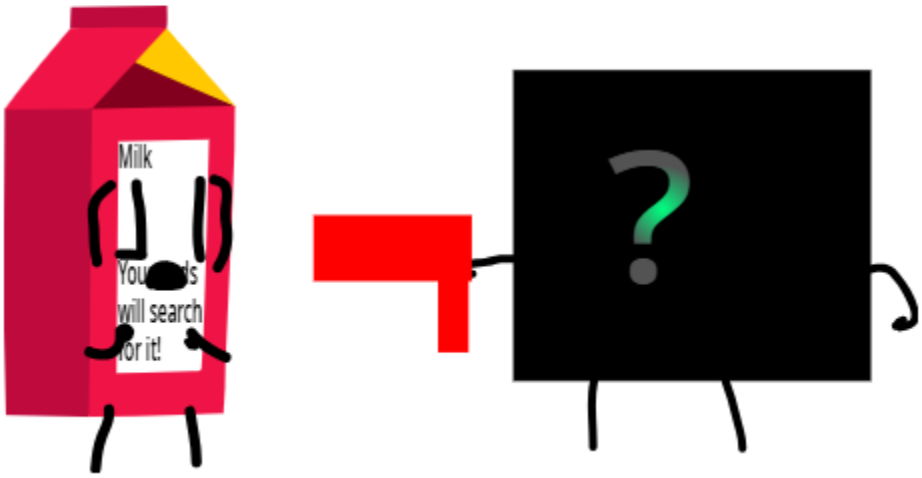
Face in Darkness smirked. He said it was Toast's fault for spreading "lies" and betraying the prophecy.

The bread tried to defend himself. He had powers from being part of the prophecy.

"Wait…" Toast realized. "If I'm in the prophecy and I have powers, then Milky must have powers too!"

Right after he said that, Milky discovered how to return himself to normal size.

Face in Darkness, unimpressed, began bragging about his omnipotence and how he could bend time itself as he pleased, even if he never actually did it.



Chapter 4
The hypnosis

Milky thought the war was over. He was back to his normal size, and nothing could possibly go wrong.

His friend Toast went to see him, but he started saying strange things. “Rejoin the prophecy, Milky. I told you lies. Face in Darkness is the God of the universe,” said the bread.

The carton immediately realized that his best friend had been hypnotized by the entity to manipulate him. Milky ran away, but a strange person who looked similar to Toast suddenly appeared and used an anti-hypnosis spray on the bread.

Moments later, Milky was kidnapped onto a strange platform floating in the air by the same person who had saved his friend. “You saved my friend, why?” asked the confused carton, wanting answers.

The mysterious individual explained that she was Toast’s protector, even though Toast believed she hated him. Her name was Cornbread. Cornbread told Milky to leave before Toast became suspicious.

Just as Milky was about to greet his friend, now free from hypnosis, his phone began to ring. He picked it up and received tragic news: his father had passed away from a stroke.

Milky immediately dropped his phone and began to cry. He and his father had shared a strong bond. It was heartbreaking to see him go. Grief filled the air. Toast felt deeply saddened for his best friend as well.

The next day, at the funeral, Milky placed roses on his father's grave. His sister, cousin, younger brother, and uncle were all present. By the end of the service, everyone was in tears.

Chapter 5
From Boss to small

Milky was casually roaming the streets of Blupool when a sudden flashback hit him. It was the moment he had shrunk Boss as punishment. Milky had done it because Boss had committed many crimes against humanity, but Milky still believed there was some good left inside him.

The milk carton had promised the mysterious leader that he would return to his normal size, but only if he gave up evil for good.

Suddenly, the flashback ended abruptly.

Milky's heart began pounding. He started hyperventilating. Had he gone too far with Boss? Was he becoming the very person he once hated?

Out of nowhere, Face in Darkness appeared. He looked furious.

"You… You will regret shrinking MY SERVANT! AND BREAKING HIS HYPNOSIS!" the omnipotent said with pure rage in his voice.

As a consequence of Milky's actions, the so-called "God" began growing taller and taller, his height increasing uncontrollably until he towered over the skies.

But Milky, clever as ever, quickly fired his shrink ray and reduced him back down.

"You ruined my world domination plan!" Face in Darkness shouted, furious at what the milk carton had done. "Prepare to die."

Milky's life was now in danger.

Something had to be done, and fast.

Chapter 6
The final confrontation

Face in Darkness stood on a podium inside a stage filled with all of his hypnotized minions. “When I kill Milky and Toast’s gang, Blupool SHALL BE MINE!” he said proudly.

At the same time, Milky, Toast, Cornbread, and Boss were planning what to do about the entire Face in Darkness situation. All of them could die. It was not time to give up. It was time to fight and defend themselves.

Boss still had the old guns from his gang. As a gift, he gave them to the others. Milky was excited at first, but he quickly became serious. “It’s time. Time to defeat Face in Darkness.” He immediately started shooting at the hypnotized gang members. Nobody stopped him because it was what he was supposed to do. Eventually, the others joined the battle.

Face in Darkness grew irritated. He was getting weaker by the second. He spawned two giant versions of the gang members. One of the titans grabbed Milky. At the same time, Face in Darkness grew to around ten meters tall to speak to him. Another giant was sent to grab Milky’s friends, leaving them just as helpless.

Suddenly, the omnipotent being teleported away.

Later, the four of them found themselves inside a prison cell. Luckily, Boss found a way to escape by squeezing through the bars. He told the others he could pick the lock with his hands if they wanted. Soon, everyone was free.

Milky, showing his bravery and leadership, told the others to stay back and that he would handle the rest alone. The milk carton went searching for Face in Darkness. Suddenly, he found himself at the edge of a cliff. He almost fell to his death.

The omnipotent being teleported in front of him. “You escaped. You know, I could just push you off. And you would be forgotten by everyone,” he said threateningly.

Milky stood his ground. He dared to call Face in Darkness by his former name, Cap.

Milky refused to die alone. If he was going down, he would take his enemy with him.

“YOU ARE NOT SUPPOSED TO KNOW THAT!” Face in Darkness shouted angrily.

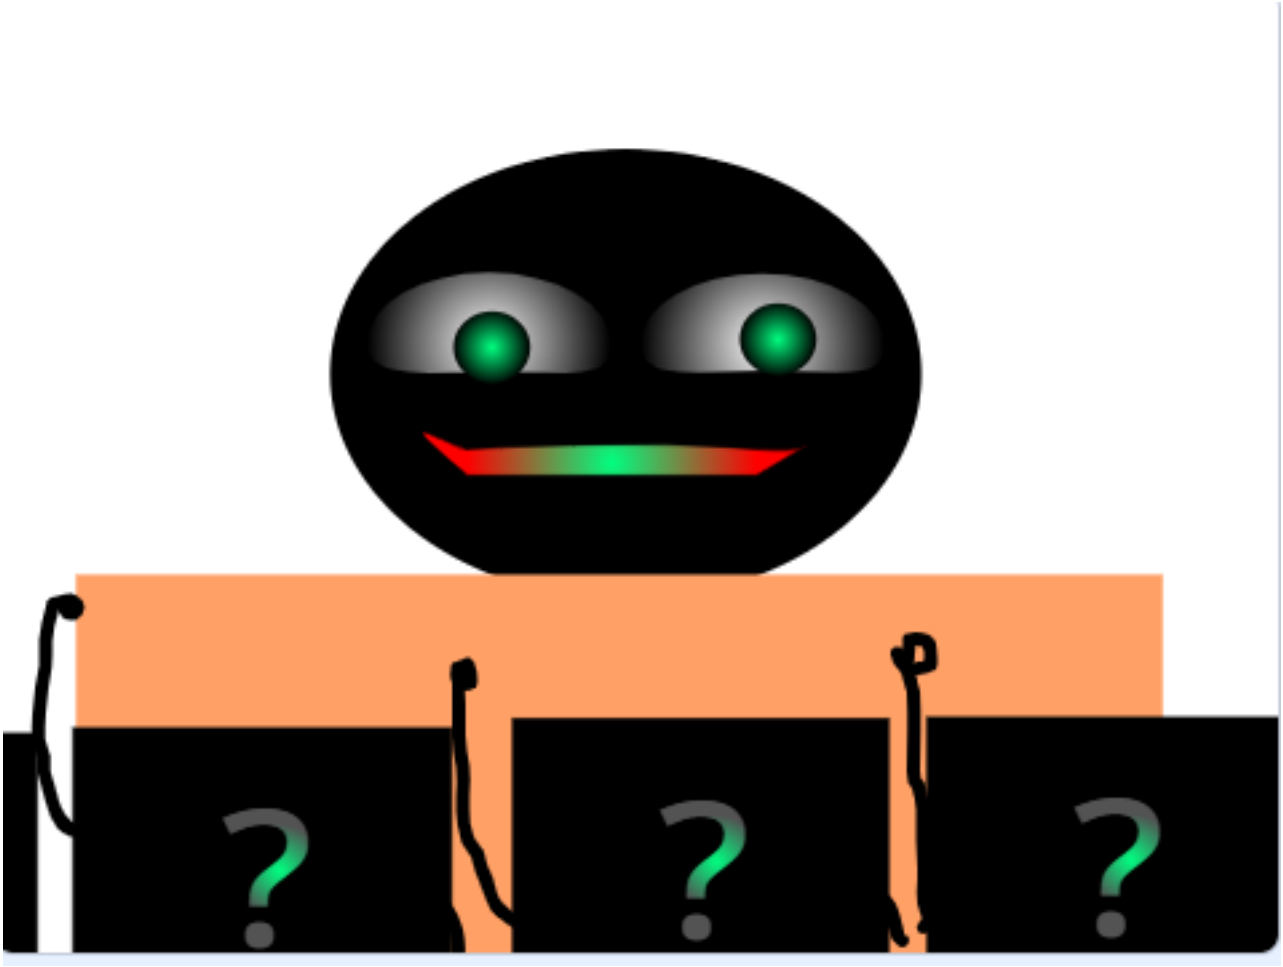
Milky grabbed the powerful being’s hand and jumped off the cliff with him. Suddenly, Face in Darkness began flying through the sky, with Milky still holding onto him. A few minutes later, Milky could no longer hold on. He fell five meters from the sky into the former Unknown Gang HQ. He was bleeding milk and remained unconscious for two hours.

Around the time Milky woke up, Face in Darkness believed he had won. Face in Darkness never dies, or so he thought.

Suddenly, a crucifix fell from the sky and struck him in the head.

The crucifix was Face in Darkness's only weakness.

His soul painfully separated from his body. Screams of agony echoed as the separation completed. Before fading, he declared that while his physical body might die, his soul would live on.



Prologue
The future

Four years later, in 2022, the prophecy was rotting away. The building stood shattered, its promotional signs destroyed and forgotten.

Milky wore a special badge, the Badge of the Protectors. The Protectors were chosen individuals who “protected” entire regions. Without them, their assigned lands would simply vanish.

Milky’s dad used to be one, until he died. Now Milky had taken his place.

After bravely saving Blupool, he became the representative of Objectsville.

Suddenly, his girlfriend Melon called out to him.
“Babe, are you coming soon?” she asked, looking around for him.

“Yes, Melon!” Milky replied happily.

He was finally free from all the drama. Still, there was always room for new adventures and new friends.

He was only twenty-five. He had his whole life ahead of him.

The end

Milky Magic grew. It always grew. To when I thought it would be cancelled, to a remaster of the show, to a book adaptation of it. This is only the beginning. Milky Magic only existed for 2 years, think of all the possibilities. What will the future of Milky Magic be?

Just remember, I will always love all of you guys. Thanks for reading this book :)
